LIE SAYS GUILD

I think all members of the Senate knew the Overtime Bill was coming up on Friday.—PRESIDENT DANA of the State Senate. WHY WERE THESE FOUR "FRIENDS" OF THE BILL NOT PRESENT?

Labor Union Commends Boston American For Its Fight for Women and Children

Resolved: That the Central Labor Union of Lynn in executive session do hereby commend the splendid work of the BOSTON AMERICAN in its effort to have the Overtime Bill repealed and to protect the women and children toilers against whom the contemptible action of corrupt Senators has been directed.

(Signed)
GEORGE A. ROSE, Recording Secretary.
—Resolution adopted by the Lynn Central Labor Union after a discussion of the defeat by a trick of the Overtime Bill in the Senate.

BOY 15, JAILED FOR HITTING RICH MAN WITH SNOWBALL

South Boston Lad Faces Court Alone to Avoid Causing His Parents Worry.

Because John L. Kelley, a thirteen-year-old South Boston boy, in a spirit of playfulness threw a snowball at William B. Wilbur, a wealthy man, who was passing by, he will have to serve thirty days in jail. Kelley bravely kept the secret of his deed from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Kelley, of No. 120 West Sixth street, and appeared alone in court before Judge Palmer to face his punishment. The little fellow did not want his parents to worry over him, as he already has an older brother in jail for hitting the same man. Wilbur, who pushed the case against young Kelley in West Sixth street, and named a crowd of boys who were getting snow balls at Johnston. Kelley threw a snow ball at Johnston. Kelley threw a snow ball at Johnston. Kelley threw a snow ball at Johnston.

MOTHER HOPES FOR PARDON FOR BOY

"I never expected my little Johnnie would be put into jail. He is bright and full of life and sometimes mischievous, but, oh, not a bad boy—never."
"Thursday I am going to see him in jail and take some good things to eat, some of his favorite dishes and some candy."
"It seems such a little thing that he did, and I could have spanked him myself for a better punishment. I wish he might be pardoned—it seems such a blank here at home without him."
—Statement of mother of boy sent to jail thirty days for throwing a snowball.

GOV. PATTERSON FAILS TO RALLY

COLUMBIA, N. Y., March 26.—There is no change in the condition of Governor Patterson this morning. He spent a restful night. The report given out at New York at Johnston. Kelley threw a snow ball at Johnston. Kelley threw a snow ball at Johnston. Kelley threw a snow ball at Johnston.

Governor Declares Story That Overtime Bill Was Killed to Favor Him Is False—Had Been Asked by "Certain Interests" to Defeat the Measure.

Governor Guild to-day nailed the lie told by Senators that they were doing a political favor to him by killing the Overtime Bill, which provided that women and children should not be employed in factories at night.

The four senators who had voted in favor of the bill, but who by their absence on Friday when it was reconsidered caused its death are Horton A. Hilton of Lowell, Sidney A. Hill of Stoneham, Louis S. Cox of Lawrence and John M. Grosvenor of Swampscott. Hilton arranged that a fake telegram should be sent to him about a mythical illness in his family as an excuse of his leaving the Senate just before the measure came up, when his vote alone would have saved it.

Representatives of various labor organizations of the State will see the Governor to-day and endeavor to have him take action regarding the killing of the measure. Raising their opinion upon the known attitude of the Governor relative to this measure labor men believe that he will do what he can to have the desired legislation enacted.

To a reporter of the BOSTON AMERICAN the Governor made his first public statement about the bill to-day. This is what he said:

Governor Was Approached.

"I was urged by certain interests to use my influence with Senators to induce them to vote against the Overtime Bill. In each and every instance I refused to do what was requested."

"I do not care to tell just what interests approached me, but you may draw your own conclusions. I refused to see any Senators about the bill and did not do so. I refused to take sides in the matter one way or the other."

"I do not know where the story started that it was my wish that the bill should be killed so that it would save me from embarrassment. It certainly did not originate with me."

"I was never afraid to have the bill come to me. I was ready at all times to act upon it. I was approached by Senators about the measure and

SHOOTS BRIDE WITH ARM ABOUT HER NECK

LAWRENCE, March 26.—Falling to nervous trouble, and that last week he tried to end his own life by taking poison, but was saved by a friend, James Matthews, returned from Boston and stating that his wife and her sister, Mary Gilling, were visiting a friend at No. 120 Broadway, he went there. Calling on the wife and sister, the three went for a walk. At St. Patrick's church they were joined by the father of the girls, Richard Gilling. Family matters were discussed, and Mr. Matthews told Matthews that, as Sadie and he could not get along together they had better live apart for a time. They then went home.

After some argument Matthews went down a side street, turned along and met his wife by coming up another street. Another argument was started and ended in the shooting. Mr. Gilling and Patrick Gilling, the son, who came along at the time, overpowered Matthews, took the revolver and sent for the police.

STANDARD FIGHTS FOR DELAY; HADLEY BARES TRUST SECRETS SQUEEZED OUT OF HIM!

Men High in Company's Management Are Involved by Documents.

NEW YORK, March 26.—Secrets which the Standard Oil Trust has kept dark practically since the day when John D. Rockefeller formed it were told today by Edward F. Sanford, ex-Commissioner of New York, appointed by Missouri, to take testimony in the suit of Carter vs. the Standard Oil Trust.

In the course of his fight against the aggregation of monopolies which have grown and acted in the State, Attorney General Hadley has received assistance from many persons within the company's line. The identity of these persons was disclosed by the testimony of the informant, who said that he had been directed by the Standard Oil Trust to this effect.

Some of the most important ones have been given in that way. Among those which the Standard Oil Trust has kept dark since the day when John D. Rockefeller formed it were told today by Edward F. Sanford, ex-Commissioner of New York, appointed by Missouri, to take testimony in the suit of Carter vs. the Standard Oil Trust.

These letters disclose not only the fact of the absolute control of the stock of subordinate companies which have been the form of control of the Standard Oil Trust, but also the fact that the Standard Oil Trust has been able to control the Standard Oil Trust in this way.

Men of High Rank Involved.

They also include some of the highest rank in the trust, and may form the basis of the Standard Oil Trust in this way.

It is to be developed this and of his case that Mr. Hadley is so eager to get John D. Rockefeller in the witness stand. Mr. Hadley has been told that the Standard Oil Trust has been able to control the Standard Oil Trust in this way.

This confession was expected, and of course the Standard Oil Trust has been able to control the Standard Oil Trust in this way.

Will Fight for Delay.

That the oil millionaire resists the importance of this latest move was demonstrated last night, when it was learned that he would resist the tactics of the Standard Oil Trust in this way.
